1 These data were obtained by adding up marital and non-marital births tabulated by the age of the mother.

2 Births of unknown age were distributed proportionally across all known age categories.

3 Originally, these data were organized by age of the mother and mother’s birth year. This format allowed us to identify births of late registration. These births are moved to the years of their actual occurrence in the HFD outputs.